

Designing Your Film Set

You can create a film set using a variety of backgrounds. First consider what kind of movie you are making – drama, space, fantasy, adventure – and then have a look see what you think would work well.

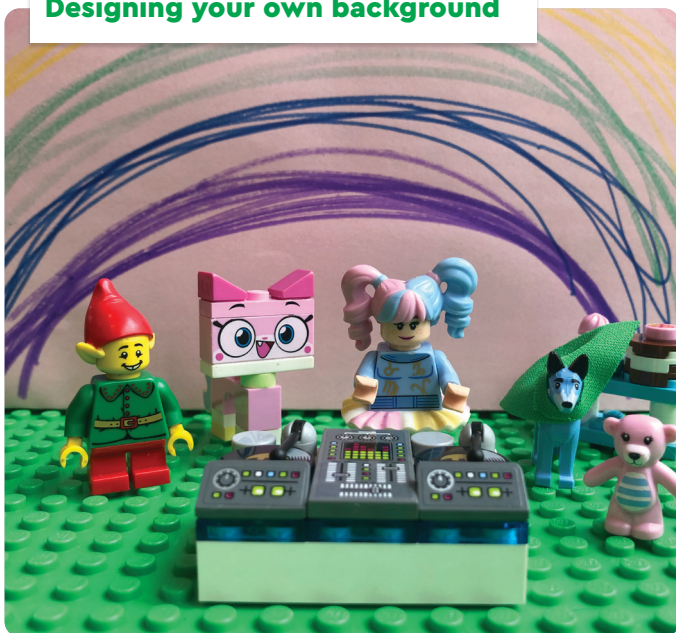

Using your playground as a set

Using the box from a LEGO set

Designing your own background

Printing a background

